ST. ANDREW'S FOLLIES AND PIANO DEDICATION

Save the Date - August 27, 2017

In April of this year, you may have noticed the beautiful 6' Kawai Grand Piano that has made a new home in St. Andrew's Parish Hall. This piano was last owned by Sallye Graves, former choir director and rector's wife of St. John's Episcopal Church in Chula Vista. The Piano started life at Mario's restaurant where Sallye sang regularly. This Piano was donated by her family in her memory. The piano will be dedicated during a dinner program/variety show that will feature Wayne and Cheryl Seppala as they accompany a variety of singers and dancers who will present a Broadway Style revue - show tunes and popular music from the 1920's-1980's. An Italian buffet will be provided for the complete experience! Tickets will be available soon; net proceeds will support St. Andrew's Organ Fund.
