C.A.T. - LAST STOP! HEAR THE WHISTLE BLOWING?

We are coming to the end of this step in shaping our future together. On July 2nd, following the 10am service, the opportunity to join us on this journey will close. You are probably one of many who have already shared their experiences and perspectives. If you have not, this is your last chance before the survey closes. Although our response rate has been great, if we don't have your input, we are still missing an important piece of the puzzle. PLEASE-share your opinions with us using this confidential assessment. If you need a paper copy, we will provide one for you. Matt has printed copies available for you to fill out today, or for you take home to bring back home next Sunday. If you had experienced difficulty in using the survey online, please meet with Matt between or after services. If you have any questions, please contact Beau or Matt. A special thanks to everyone who has participated in this process.
